

Call for Chapter Proposals

Please forward to any interested authors/researchers

The Social Determinants of Indigenous Peoples' Health (Working Title)

Editors: Dr. Margo Greenwood (UNBC) and Dr. Charlotte Reading (UVic)

You are invited to contribute a chapter in a peer-reviewed book, which will integrate the work of diverse scholars, focusing on diverse issues related to the social determinants of Indigenous peoples' health specific to Canada.

Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Early Childhood Development
- Women's Health
- Social/Economic context drivers: education, income, employment
- Housing
- Colonization and Colonialism
- Language and Culture
- Self Determination

This book is intended for a general academic audience, as an introductory text for university level courses (both undergraduate and graduate) in health studies as well as in social sciences.

Optimal chapter length is 25 manuscript pages (8000 words, including references).

Timeline and Deadlines

July 5, 2010: Chapter proposals due.

July 31, 2010: Editors' response to proposing authors.

November 30, 2010: Completed chapters due to editors.

Prospective authors should email a brief CV, a writing sample, and a one-page proposal for their chapter to:

Lloy Wylie at: sdiph@shaw.ca